

Bureau of Land Management Completes Preliminary Non-Binding Determination on Bald Knoll Road

Contact: Matt Craddock, 801-539-4115

Salt Lake City, Utah—September 12, 2007—The Bureau of Land Management is extending the review period for the non-binding determination (NBD) for the Bald Knoll Road in Kane County by 15 days. Based on review of information submitted by Kane County and information in BLM records, the BLM Utah State Office has made the preliminary determination that the Bald Knoll Road is a valid R.S. 2477 right-of-way. Initially, the preliminary NBD was open for a 30-day public review period, which is now extended to a 45-day review period, with the review closing on Oct. 30.

The Bald Knoll road is located in Kane County, approximately 20 miles northeast of Kanab. Total length of the road is approximately nine miles, with nearly the entire length crossing public lands administered by the BLM. The east end of Bald Knoll Road connects to Mill Creek Road and the west/south end of Bald Knoll Road connects to Dead End Road.

Copies are available at the BLM Utah State Office, 200 South 440 West, Suite 500, Salt Lake City, UT 84101; at the BLM Kanab Field Office, 318 North 100 East, Kanab, UT 84741; and via the BLM Utah internet site at: <http://www.blm.gov/ut/st/en.html>
